

XM Radio is far superior in quality and programming and it is a pay per use service. There is no course of action that would justify the removal of such local, convenient content such as weather and traffic.